Welcome to St Albans Church!

We welcome all people, no matter their age, ability, gender, cultural background, sexual orientation, income level or faith tradition to join us as we seek to deepen our relationship with God and each other. Together we're exploring how we are called to serve in the world, right here in downtown Ottawa.

During the service, if you are a breastfeeding parent, you are welcome to breastfeed where you are seated or anywhere else in the church, as you feel comfortable.

We continue to recommend wearing a mask at all times other than when receiving communion, eating/drinking, or speaking into a microphone.

About this booklet

This booklet is your guide to our worship. You're going to experience and participate in worship through music, prayer, readings, reflections and silence. Every time it's your turn to say or do something, you'll see it here in this booklet (usually in bold). If there are surprises, or you have questions, ask a neighbour.

At this service we are delighted to welcome the Venerable Linda Hill, our Executive Archdeacon, to preside over the service. And the Venerable Rhonda Waters, Archdeacon of Ottawa East, who will be preaching.

Welcome

Land Acknowledgement

St. Albans gathers on the unceded territory of the Algonquin Anishnaabeg people. We remember the Indigenous peoples on whose land we are gathered, wherever we are. Our acknowledgement is also a statement of our commitment to the ongoing work of reconciliation with our Indigenous neighbours.

Greeting

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. And also with you.

Introduction

My brothers, sisters and siblings in Christ, Michael Garner has been chosen to be pastor of this parish of St Albans.

After prayerful consideration, and according to the practice of this diocese, the bishop has appointed Michael to this position of leadership in our common ministry.

This ministry continues the good work done through the years in this community, and is part of the work and witness of the whole church. It is a new beginning because Michael brings particular gifts to our ministry together.

As we stand in God's presence let us pray that grace will be given to Michael, and to all of us in this ministry, that we may fulfil the responsibilities which are ours.

Collect

Let us pray.

We pray silently.

Almighty God,

by your grace alone we are accepted and called to your service. Strengthen us by your Holy Spirit and make us worthy of our calling; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Give Me Strength | Dido (arr. Over the Rhine) Sitting in the rain alone Looking at a place that's gone

Boarded up my memories But something's drawn me here again and I I cannot leave the past alone

Hoped that I would never find All the things I left behind Now I find the child in me is going to remind me that I I can't forget my past for long

So take a look outside yourself And tell me what you see I can't believe That you won't see the change in me

Give me strength to find the road that's lost in me Give me time to heal and build myself a dream Give me eyes to see the world surrounding me Give me strength to be only me

I don't want to hear the things You say you know all you've redeemed 'Cause I can't change what's come before Build myself some better dreams And cast off the fear that holds me here

So take a look outside yourself And tell me what you see I can't believe That you won't see the change in me

Give me strength to find the road that's lost in me Give me time to heal and build myself a dream Give me eyes to see the world surrounding me Give me strength to be only me

The Proclamation of the Word

The First Reading: Jeremiah 6:10-16 (Ron Chaplin)

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church. Thanks be to God.

Psalm 40 (Michelle Sorenson)
I waited patiently upon the Lord who stooped to me and heard my cry.
God lifted me out of the desolate pit, out of the mire and clay, and set my feet on a high cliff
and made my footing sure.
God put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God;
many shall see, and stand in awe, and put their trust in the Lord.
Happy are they who trust in the Lord!
they do not resort to evil spirits or turn to false gods.
Great things are they that you have done,
O Lord my God! how great your wonders and your plans for us!
There is none who can be compared with you.

Oh, that I could make them known and tell them,

but they are more than I can count.

In sacrifice and offering you take no pleasure (you have given me ears to hear you); burnt-offering and sin-offering you have not required.

And so I said, "Behold, I come. In the roll of the book it is written concerning me:

'I love to do your will, O my God; your law is deep within my heart.'" I proclaimed righteousness in the great congregation;

behold, I did not restrain my lips; and that, O Lord, you know.

Your righteousness have I not hidden in my heart;

I have spoken of your faithfulness and your deliverance;

I have not concealed your love and faithfulness from the great congregation.

You are the Lord; do not withhold your compassion from me; let your love and your faithfulness keep me safe for ever.

For innumerable troubles have crowded upon me;

my sins have overtaken me, and I cannot see;

they are more in number than the hairs of my head,

and my heart fails me.

Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me; O Lord, make haste to help me.

Let them be ashamed and altogether dismayed who seek after my life to destroy it; let them draw back and be disgraced who take pleasure in my misfortune.

Let those who say "Aha!" and gloat over me be confounded, because they are ashamed.

Let all who seek you rejoice in you and be glad;

let those who love your salvation continually say, "Great is the Lord!"

Though I am poor and afflicted, the Lord will have regard for me.

You are my helper and my deliverer; do not tarry, O my God.

The Second Reading: Romans 12:1-18 (Mary-Martha Hale) Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church. Thanks be to God. Revolution | Heartless Bastards Where you going, my friend? Have you forgotten when There was a time filled with hope instead of fear that's in your heart There was a time when life was simple and innocent to start Do you remember? Do you remember?

Where you going, my friend? Have you forgotten when There was a time when false information wasn't so rampant in the sphere There was a time when you weren't questioning everything you hear Do you remember? Do you remember?

Constantly being advertised, your life commercialized and disguised As happiness in pills and potions, fancy threads and cars in motion Hypnotized by gilded lies to line the pockets of so few While hungry politicians feed bullshit to the masses To ensure their statuses and further divide the classes

And you were born with a voice so open up and speak your mind Raise consciousness and elevate how we all relate don't hesitate No need to be better or smarter than anybody else Leave judgement at the door for others and yourself

The revolution is in your mind x 4

Big Brother's watching you and trying to sell you something new And I just want to take away take away the blues Big Brother's watching you and trying to sell you something new And I just want to take away take away the blues

The revolution is in your mind x 4 Revolution x 4 When I get up, oh, I get up in the morning All I really want is the truth Oh, when I open my eyes and I get up in the morning All I really need is the truth

You were born with a voice so open up and speak your mind Raise consciousness and elevate how we all relate don't hesitate No need to be better or smarter than anybody else Leave judgement at the door for others and yourself

The revolution is in your mind x 4

The Gospel: Matthew 5:1-14 (Moira Davis) Le Seigneur soit avec vous. The Lord be with you. And also with you.

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John. Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

The Gospel of Christ Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Something Beautiful | Sinéad O'Connor

I wanna make Something beautiful For you and from you To show you To show you I adore you Oh you

And your journey Towards me Which I see And I see All you push through Mad for you And because of you I couldn't thank you in ten thousand years If I cried ten thousand rivers of tears Ah, but you know the soul And you know what makes it gold You give life through blood Blood, blood Blood, blood Oh, blood, blood

Oh I wanna make something so lovely for you 'Cause I promised that's what I'd do for you With the Bible, I stole I know you forgave my soul because Such was my need on a chronic Christmas Eve And I think we're agreed That it should have been free And you sang to me

They dress the wounds of my poor people As though they're nothing Saying, "Peace, peace" When there's no peace They dress the wounds of my poor people As though they're nothing Saying, "Peace, peace, peace" When there's no peace

Days without number Now can a bride forget her jewels? Or a maid her ornaments? Yet, my people forgotten me

Days without number Days without number And in their want Who'll dress their wounds? Who'll dress their wounds?

Prayers of the People (Leah Seabrook)

Sisters and brothers and Siblings in Christ, we are called to proclaim the story of God's love and mercy and, above all, the Gospel of our Saviour Christ: I ask your prayers for Michael who has come among us to preach the word of God and to teach the faith.

Silence

Lord in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

We are called to be a sign and witness of God's purpose for all the human family: I ask your prayers for Michael who has come among us to share our joys and sorrows, to counsel, reconcile, and comfort; to nurture this community of faith.

Silence

Lord in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

I ask your prayers for the committees and organizations of our church and community, and for Michael, that in wisdom and humility, in discernment and good humour

he may join with us in working for the building up of Christ's Church.

Silence

Lord in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

I ask your prayers for us all, that together we may learn the ways of the kingdom, patterned in worship and practised in love. Together may we welcome strangers, stand with outcasts, and support those who are broken, in the pattern of our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Silence

Lord in your mercy, Hear our prayer.

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications to you, and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together you will hear their requests.

Fulfil now our desires and petitions, as may be best for us, granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come eternal life; for you are good and loving, and we glorify you through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, in the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

The Peace

La paix du Seigneur soit toujours avec vous. The peace of the Lord be always with you. And also with you.

Blessing

Glory of Jah | Sinéad O'Connor There is no holy one like you You install kings and take them down Truly there is no one beside you You made all of creation with wisdom

May the glory of Jah endure forever The boughs of the mighty are broken And the weak are clothed with strength

There was the sea, vast and wide With all its creatures beyond number There go the ships, they all look to you You lift up the poor into a place of honour

May the glory of Jah endure forever The boughs of the mighty are broken And the weak are clothed with strength

The Lord makes poor and he makes rich The pillars of the earth belong to him And he has set his world upon them To raise us up from the dunghill May the glory of Jah endure forever The boughs of the mighty are broken And the weak are clothed with strength

May the glory of Jah endure forever The boughs of the mighty are broken And the weak are clothed with strength

May the glory of Jah endure forever

Sending

Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Thanks be to God.
